

REBECCA STORM

Born 1987, Victoria, Canada

Lives and works in Montreal, Canada

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Rebecca Storm was born and raised on Vancouver Island and now lives and works as a painter in Montreal, Canada. She paints to understand the psyche. With consideration to forces inside and outside the self, she explores how they impact the way we catalogue memories -consciously, subconsciously, and tangibly. Often working from collaged photographic references, Storm reinterprets and distorts the iconography of nostalgia, combining traditional visual symbols, as well as offering new semiotics to decipher contemporary psychological conundrums.
